

Matching Against Motor Vehicle and Social Security Records

What fields from the voter registration form will the state seek to match to motor vehicle or Social Security records? Identifying number, name, and date of birth. The state may also seek to match additional fields, but has not yet determined which additional fields it will seek to match.

How precise is the match standard? Wyoming will use a “substantial match” standard to match information on forms with a driver’s license number. Wyoming will use the standard AAMVA criteria for matching information on forms with Social Security digits: exact match of the SSN-4, first name, last name, month of birth, and year of birth.

How much human intervention is involved in determining whether information is matched? For matching information on forms with a driver’s license number, the system will return a code for each potentially matching record representing the degree of the match, and will return unmatched fields for each such record. The election official has the discretion to determine whether a likely match exists among the possible matches returned. The process for matching information on forms with SSN digits is fully automated.

Description of matching process: For matching information on forms with a driver’s license number, the system will return a code for each potentially matching record representing the degree of the match, and will return unmatched fields for each such record. The election official has the discretion to determine whether a likely match exists among the possible matches returned. Forms listing SSN digits will be automatically checked against the SSA database through the standard AAMVA process: the county elections official will submit an entered record to the DMV database, which will automatically submit the appropriate fields to the SSA and return a code indicating whether the record was successfully matched or not.

What are the consequences if the state cannot find a match? Wyoming has no stated statewide policy; each county is responsible for determining how the application will be treated.<sup>6</sup>

Notice and Opportunity to Resolve Errors

Does the applicant have the opportunity to correct a missing or incomplete identifying number, without submitting a new form? No. The applicant may submit a new form with correct information by the voter registration deadline or at the polls on Election Day.

Does the applicant have the opportunity to resolve a failed match, without submitting a new form? No. The applicant may submit a new form with verifiable information by the voter registration deadline or at the polls on Election Day.

If information on an otherwise timely application is corrected after the voter registration deadline, is the correction timely? No.

Description of notice and correction process: The county elections official will attempt to notify by mail an applicant whose identifying number is missing, incomplete, or illegible, if the incomplete information causes that application to be rejected. An applicant whose identifying number is unverified may be notified, at the discretion of the county official. An applicant may attempt to resolve any error by submitting a new form at any point before the voter registration deadline, or by registering at the polls or at the office of the county clerk on Election Day.

Identification Requirements at the Polls

Who must provide identification at the polls? Any first-time voter registering by mail, and any voter registering on Election Day, must provide identification at the polls.<sup>7</sup>

What forms of identification are accepted? First-time voters must provide a document described in section 303 of HAVA.<sup>8</sup> A voter registering on Election Day may provide a document described in section 303 of HAVA, or may provide any two of: a certification of U.S. citizenship, a certificate of naturalization, a U.S. military draft record, a voter's registration card from another state or county, a Social Security card, a certification of birth abroad issued by the Department of State, an original or certified copy of a birth certificate bearing an official seal, or any other U.S. or state-issued official identification.<sup>9</sup>

Forms of ID:

1st-time voters registering by mail:	current and valid photo ID current utility bill w/ name, address bank statement w/ name, address government check w/ name, address paycheck w/ name, address other gov't document w/ name, address
Election Day registrant:	current and valid photo ID current utility bill w/ name, address bank statement w/ name, address government check w/ name, address paycheck w/ name, address other gov't document w/ name, address or two of: certification of citizenship certificate of naturalization U.S. military draft record state/county voter registration card Social Security card Dep't of State certification of birth certified copy of birth certificate other official gov't ID

What are the consequences of failing to show identification? The voter may cast a provisional ballot. The ballot will be counted if the voter provides documentation to the county clerk within one day of the election establishing that she was eligible to vote in the precinct.<sup>10</sup>
