[Announcer]: There's always one kid who'll stand up to the bully, who's not afraid of a fight.

All of his life, Judge Roland Belsome has been standing up for other people. A tough kid who played football, he's been a construction worker, a law school professor and a judge.

He stood up to the special interests on behalf of people.

He's fighting for a politically independent supreme court. It's your fight too. Judge Roland Belsome, endorsed by the Alliance for Good Government.
