Because they can't run for judge, we need our judges to stand up for them.

Judge Connie Kelly,

Judge Sheila Johnson,

and family advocate Bridget McCormick,

are three candidates for Michigan Supreme Court,

who have spent their careers protecting families and victims of crime.

From getting criminals off our streets, to keeping kids out of gangs, and unlike some judges, they have zero tolerance for violence against women and kids.

[PFB] Kelly, Johnson, McCormick. These three protect families.
