[Joanne Kloppenburg]: "They say that justice should be blind, but what does that mean really?"

I'm Joanne Kloppenburg, and I'm running for Supreme Court Justice, because after 21-years as a state prosecutor I've seen a lot. I've seen and argued nearly every kind of case. I've worked under Democrats and Republicans,

And seen how people who disagree can work together. And now,

I see how partisan politics and attack ads are driving people apart in Wisconsin.

It's why justice should be blind, and that's the kind of justice I'll be."
