[Rochester]: "When I ruled the Jefferson County Occupational Tax unconstitutional, I did so because wage earners were bearing the complete burden of that tax. It was unconstitutional and it was unfair.

Why should someone who sweeps a lawyer's office have to pay the tax but the lawyer doesn't have to pay the tax because they pay some nominal fee? It's not right and it's unfair, and in my opinion it's unconstitutional." [Announcer]: Judge John Rochester, like a rock. [PFB: Judge John Rochester for State Supreme Court Campaign]
