114TH CONGRESS 1ST SESSION

S.___

To secure the Federal voting rights of persons when released from incarceration.

IN THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES

Mr. CARDIN introduced the following bill; which was read twice and referred to the Committee on _____

A BILL

To secure the Federal voting rights of persons when released from incarceration.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-

2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4 This Act may be cited as the "Democracy Restoration

5 Act of 2015".

6 SEC. 2. FINDINGS.

7 Congress makes the following findings:

- 8 (1) The right to vote is the most basic constitu-
- 9 tive act of citizenship. Regaining the right to vote

1	reintegrates individuals with criminal convictions
2	into free society, helping to enhance public safety.
3	(2) Article I, section 4, of the Constitution
4	grants Congress ultimate supervisory power over
5	Federal elections, an authority which has repeatedly
6	been upheld by the United States Supreme Court.
7	(3) Basic constitutional principles of fairness
8	and equal protection require an equal opportunity
9	for citizens of the United States to vote in Federal
10	elections. The right to vote may not be abridged or
11	denied by the United States or by any State on ac-
12	count of race, color, gender, or previous condition of
13	servitude. The 13th, 14th, 15th, 19th, 24th, and
14	26th Amendments to the Constitution empower Con-
15	gress to enact measures to protect the right to vote
16	in Federal elections. The 8th Amendment to the
17	Constitution provides for no excessive bail to be re-
18	quired, nor excessive fines imposed, nor cruel and
19	unusual punishments inflicted.
20	(4) There are 3 areas where discrepancies in
21	State laws regarding criminal convictions lead to un-
22	fairness in Federal elections—
23	(A) the lack of a uniform standard for vot-
24	ing in Federal elections leads to an unfair dis-

1	parity and unequal participation in Federal
2	elections based solely on where a person lives;
3	(B) laws governing the restoration of vot-
4	ing rights after a criminal conviction vary
5	throughout the country and persons in some
6	States can easily regain their voting rights
7	while in other States persons effectively lose
8	their right to vote permanently; and
9	(C) State disenfranchisement laws dis-
10	proportionately impact racial and ethnic minori-
11	ties.
12	(5) Two States do not disenfranchise individ-
13	uals with criminal convictions at all (Maine and
14	Vermont), but 48 States and the District of Colum-
15	bia have laws that deny convicted individuals the
16	right to vote while they are in prison.
17	(6) In some States disenfranchisement results
18	from varying State laws that restrict voting while in-
19	dividuals are under the supervision of the criminal
20	justice system or after they have completed a crimi-
21	nal sentence. In 35 States, convicted individuals may
22	not vote while they are on parole and 31 of those
23	States disenfranchise individuals on felony probation
24	as well. In 11 States, a conviction can result in life-
25	time disenfranchisement.

(7) Several States deny the right to vote to in dividuals convicted of certain misdemeanors.

3 (8) An estimated 5,850,000 citizens of the 4 United States, or about 1 in 40 adults in the United 5 States, currently cannot vote as a result of a felony 6 conviction. Of the 5,850,000 citizens barred from 7 voting, only 25 percent are in prison. By contrast, 8 75 percent of the disenfranchised reside in their 9 communities while on probation or parole or after 10 having completed their sentences. Approximately 11 2,600,000 citizens who have completed their sen-12 tences remain disenfranchised due to restrictive 13 State laws. In 6 States—Alabama, Florida, Ken-14 tucky, Mississippi, Tennessee, and Virginia-more 15 than 7 percent of the total population is 16 disenfranchised.

17 (9) In those States that disenfranchise individ-18 uals post-sentence, the right to vote can be regained 19 in theory, but in practice this possibility is often 20 granted in a non-uniform and potentially discrimina-21 tory manner. Disenfranchised individuals must ei-22 ther obtain a pardon or an order from the Governor 23 or an action by the parole or pardon board, depend-24 ing on the offense and State. Individuals convicted of a Federal offense often have additional barriers to regaining voting rights.

3 (10) State disenfranchisement laws dispropor-4 tionately impact racial and ethnic minorities. Eight 5 percent of the African-American population, or 6 2,000,000 African-Americans, are disenfranchised. 7 Given current rates of incarceration, approximately 8 1 in 3 of the next generation of African-American 9 men will be disenfranchised at some point during 10 their lifetime. Currently, 1 of every 13 African-11 Americans are rendered unable to vote because of 12 felony disenfranchisement, which is a rate 4 times 13 greater than non African-Americans. 7.7 percent of 14 African-Americans are disenfranchised whereas only 15 1.8 percent of non African-Americans are. In 3 16 States—Florida (23 percent), Kentucky (22 per-17 cent), and Virginia (20 percent)—more than 1 in 5 18 African-Americans are unable to vote because of 19 prior convictions.

20 Latino citizens disproportionately (11)are 21 disenfranchised based upon their disproportionate 22 representation in the criminal justice system. If cur-23 rent incarceration trends hold, 17 percent of Latino 24 men will be incarcerated during their lifetimes, in 25 contrast to less than 6 percent of non-Latino White

1 men. When analyzing the data across 10 States, 2 Latinos generally have disproportionately higher 3 rates of disenfranchisement compared to their pres-4 ence in the voting age population. In 6 out of 10 5 States studied in 2003, Latinos constitute more 6 than 10 percent of the total number of persons 7 disenfranchised by State felony laws. In 4 States 8 (California, 37 percent; New York, 34 percent; 9 Texas. 30percent; and Arizona, 27 percent), 10 Latinos were disenfranchised by a rate of more than 11 25 percent.

(12) Disenfranchising citizens who have been convicted of a criminal offense and who are living and working in the community serves no compelling State interest and hinders their rehabilitation and reintegration into society.

(13) State disenfranchisement laws can suppress electoral participation among eligible voters by discouraging voting among family and community members of disenfranchised persons. Future electoral participation by the children of disenfranchised parents may be impacted as well.

(14) The United States is the only Western democracy that permits the permanent denial of voting rights for individuals with felony convictions.

1 SEC. 3. RIGHTS OF CITIZENS.

2 The right of an individual who is a citizen of the 3 United States to vote in any election for Federal office 4 shall not be denied or abridged because that individual has 5 been convicted of a criminal offense unless such individual 6 is serving a felony sentence in a correctional institution 7 or facility at the time of the election.
