Wednesday, October 30, 2024

The materials contained herein are produced by the Boston Regional Intelligence Center (BRIC) and may contain information about significant law enforcement, public safety, or security matters involving the City of Boston as well as the Metropolitan Boston Region. The information contained herein is provided to assist in the collective efforts to ensure public safety and security in the Region. All information should be handled in accordance with BRIC labeling displayed on each document, and in accordance with Massachusetts General Law and BRIC policy. Inappropriate or unauthorized disclosure and handling of certain information may result in a violation of Massachusetts General Law or BPD / BRIC policy.

(U//NP) The BRIC currently has no information or intelligence to indicate a specific, credible threat targeting election officials, public safety personnel, civilians, or critical infrastructure associated with the 2024 Massachusetts General and United States Presidential Elections. The current geopolitical threat landscape remains unprecedented, and the election season may bring polarizing issues to the forefront, potentially motivating a range of individuals with diverse grievances to increase violent rhetoric, engage in threatening behavior, or carry out acts of violence against election related infrastructure, election workers, elected officials, or those perceived to be ideological opponents. Though we have no indication of a specific, credible threat, we remain concerned about the threat posed by foreign terrorist organizations (FTOs), homegrown violent extremists (HVEs), domestic violent extremists (DVEs), and other criminal actors perpetrating physical or cyberattacks against the Homeland.

NATIONAL INCIDENTS

Brief summaries of notable incidents nationwide

- (U//NP) On 28 October 2024, ballot boxes in Oregon and Washington state were set on fire by incendiary devices in what local authorities believe to be connected incidents. The ballot box arsons are also believed to be connected to a third ballot box incident that occurred earlier this month in Vancouver, Washington. Law enforcement officials have reported that the incendiary devices that were found at all three of these locations were marked with the words "Free Gaza." Approximately 475 ballots were damaged in the incident in Vancouver, WA but election officials have stated that they will be able to pull voter information from the ballots despite the damage to them.
BRIC Notes: Following the reports of these incidents, there have been calls for individuals to conduct similar criminal action towards election infrastructure. Some online users have called for individuals to "do this EVERYWHERE" while others have stated that they will do the same to drop boxes in their communities. Currently the BRIC has not observed any calls for similar activity to take place within the Metro-Boston Homeland Security Region.
- (U//NP) On 23 October 2024, Jeffrey Kelly, 60, was arrested in connection with three separate shootings involving a Democratic National Convention (DNC) campaign office in Phoenix, AZ. According to police, Kelly allegedly fired BB gun pellets and later bullets at the front of the campaign office on 16 September, 23 September, and 6 October 2024. Prior to this, on 21 October 2024, it was reported that John Pollard, 62, was arrested for allegedly threatening to "skin alive" a state party representative's employee who posted about recruiting poll watchers for election day.
- (U//NP) On 23 October 2024, California resident Nathaniel James McGuire, 20, was charged with three felony counts in connection with committing a bomb attack targeting a courthouse in Santa Maria, CA, injuring several individuals. McGuire stated during his arrest that the government had taken his guns, and that people needed to "fight, rise up, and rebel." After a search of McGuire's car officers found a shotgun, a rifle, ammunition, a suspected bomb, and ten Molotov cocktails.
BRIC Notes: Amidst claims that election will be stolen in favor of the Harris-Walz campaign, online users continue to threaten violence, with many stating there is "no option" besides a civil war should Harris win. The BRIC is not aware of any specific or credible threats related to these statements or any calls for similar activity to take place within the Metro-Boston Homeland Security Region.

[REDACTED] Death to ANYONE anti-Trump.
Tried of playing nice, time to play their game.

(U//FOUO) In the immediate aftermath of the assassination attempts, individuals used social media and encrypted messaging platforms to condemn the attempted assassination, with some advocating for a civil war and general calls for violence against elected officials, including President Biden. Many users blamed the political left for the attack, stating that they “want war,” followed by calls for retribution. One user stated on publicly available sources, “They drew first blood. Whatever happens from this point they must know is on them. Fight!”

(U//FOUO) An online narrative with increasing concern that has been observed leading up to the 2024 Presidential Election is the theory that the election will be “stolen” and when this occurs, individuals will mobilize towards violence in return. Individuals promoting this narrative frequently associate these theories with the theme propagated through various misinformation campaigns that the 2020 election was fraudulent. Early voting and the use of ballot boxes is of particular concern for the 2024 Presidential election and was a particular concern during the 2020 election. Users in ultranationalist and far-right forums continue to call on individuals to act against this perceived threat. For example:

- On August 29, 2024, multiple users in far-right forums expressed concerns regarding a video released by the office of the Secretary of State in Michigan providing election security guidance. Some users perceived this video as a threat and, in response, stated, “They won’t be able to walk the streets when the people get done with them!” and proposed sending armed militias to polling locations.

Being a Michigander! They won't be able to walk the streets, when the people get done with them!
