

Bates Range (prefix 2015-CRCL-00011)	Description of Document	Date	Withheld in full or part	Exemptions Applied	Explanation of Withholdings
Throughout production	Various documents			6	Exemption 6 was applied to withhold personal information of individuals, including names, addresses, email addresses, birthdates, and other personally identifiable information. Disclosure of such information would constitute an unwarranted invasion of the privacy of such individuals.
00001-00003	Draft Document entitled 2013 Group of Four Proposal on Coordinated Domestic CVE Grassroots Support	Undated	Part	5	Exemption 5 was applied to protect an internal deliberative draft document which outlined a proposal from four federal agencies on CVE grassroots outreach efforts. The document remains in draft form and was never finalized. Disclosure of the draft could be misleading to the public if some or all of the proposals contained within the document were not acted upon by the government.
00004 -00006	Letter from Secretary Johnson to the ACLU	6/9/2015	Released in Full
00007-00020	Powerpoint presentation on DHS CVE efforts	Undated	Part	6	An government email address was withheld.
00021-00025	CVE talking points document	Undated	Released in Full
00026-00040	Community Policing and Countering Violent Extremism	1/1/2011	Part	6	Names and email addresses of participants were withheld

00041-00047	Draft CVE Curriculum Development and proof of consenpt session at FLETC	3/10/2011	Part	5, 6, 7C	Exemption 5 was applied to protect an internal deliberative draft document which outlined a proposal for a draft curriculum and proof of concept. The document contains notes and analysis of a meeting that occurred in Feburary 2011 at FLETC. Names and contact information of participants was withheld under exemption 6 and 7C, which was applied to the information of law enforcement participants.
00048-00059	DHS CVE inventory	8/1/2014	Released in Full
00060-61	Community Policing and Countering Violent Extremism Advsiory Board Meeting Agenda	5/3/2012	Released in Full
00062-00098	Report on National Summit on Empowering Communities to Prevent Violent Extremism	8/13/2014	Released in Full
99	Countering Violent Extremism Toolkit	Undated	Released in Full
00100-00102	EHS-Europol/EU Partners CVE Work Plan	Undated	Released in Full

00103-00112	Issue Paper: CVE Cooperative Efforts and Progress with the EU and EU Member States	Undated	Part	5, 7E	Exemption 5 was applied to protect a pre-decisional, deliberative, attorney-client privileged draft of a document outlining CVE efforts between the United States and European nations. The document, which was not finalized, contains deliberative information about ongoing CVE programs, as well as proposals for potential future efforts. The document also contains law enforcement sensitive information on specific actions in process or under contemplation to combat terrorism related criminal actions. Disclosure of such information could hamper the efforts of law enforcement officials to identify and interdict would be terrorists.
00113-00115	National Capital Region CVE workshop summary	Undated	Released in Full
00116-00118	Discussion Paper: 2013 Proposal on Coordinated International CVE Efforts	Undated	Part	5	Exemption 5 was applied to protect a pre-decisional, deliberative, attorney-client privileged document discussing proposals for future international CVE efforts. Disclosure of this document could prove misleading if such efforts were either modified or never adopted.
00119-00131	DHS Office of the CVE Coordinator Media Report White House Countering Violent Extremism Summit	2/20/2015	Released in Full

