As the parent or guardian of [Name], I give my permission for him/her to participate in a High School Focus Group to review a potential new website being developed by the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI)'s Office of Public Affairs and Office of Partnership and Engagement. The website will be hosted on www.fbi.gov and it is designed to educate youth on the perils of violent extremism, including both international and domestic terrorism and hate crimes. The website is interactive, consisting of games, quizzes, text and videos that teach students the impact violent extremism can have on their lives, families, and communities. Reviewing the website and providing feedback will occur during the school day and last approximately 2 hours.

The FBI is not only committed to protecting the Homeland, but also to educating and protecting our youth from the perils of extremism and its consequences.

The proposed website has already been reviewed by other focus groups to include law enforcement, faith-based organizations, and governmental and non-governmental partners.

I understand that participation in the focus group is completely voluntary and that students will be asked to complete an anonymous survey to provide their feedback on the content and presentation of the proposed website. I release the FBI and FBI employees and/or personnel from any liability for any and all claims which may result from this program.
