User Notes on Plan Geography

Part A. General Overview

- 1. To assist users in their review of the legislative district plan, the plan geography is being provided in different formats. These include a geographic data file known as a shape file and a tabular data file known as an assignment file. The geographic file includes the boundaries for each district. The tabular data file includes one record for the lowest level of geography used to create the plan and the district to which it is assigned.
- 2. Users with Geographic Information Systems (GIS) software may note a handful of instances in which the appearance of the geography assigned to each district may not match the legal boundaries. Notes follow on these instances below.
- 3. As a general caveat, whatever the geographic representation might appear to be when the legislative plan is viewed via any software, the controlling document as to the status of any geography is the legal definitions as submitted by the Joint Secretaries to the Ohio Apportionment Board. Those definitions can be found in this document.
- 4. Any geographic area of the state not specifically named in this legal definition for House and Senate Districts that is wholly contained within the boundaries of a district but not contiguous to any district boundary, is assigned to that district. Any geographic area of the state not specifically named in this legal definition that is contiguous to any district boundary is assigned to that district with which it has the longest continuous boundary. If two or more boundaries are of equal length, the area is assigned to the district with less population. All districts are contiguous including those that are contiguous only by bodies of water.
- 5. The legal definition will be posted at the following website designated by the Ohio Apportionment Board: http://www.reshapeohio.org.

Part B. Geographic Database

The underlying geographic database used to create plans for legislative districts was developed by the Urban Center at Cleveland State University (CSU) in conjunction with the Voinovich Center at Ohio University (OU) as part of the project to develop the 2010 Ohio Common and Unified Redistricting Database (OCURD). CSU was selected by bipartisan action by the co-chairs of the Ohio Legislative Task Force on Redistricting, Reapportionment and Demographic Research. The lowest level of geography in this database is not the census block but the split census block.

- The overall purpose of the project was to accommodate for the fact that many census blocks contain portions of multiple higher levels of geography, such as a precinct or a municipality.
 In geographic terms, these are known as 'split' units because they did not nest into the higher levels of geography. The project also enabled the creation of geographic layers for wards (which were not part of the census geographic products) and precincts that more closely reflect the boundaries used in the 2008 and 2010 elections.
- 2. To create a geographic system that allowed for topological integrity, the OCURD project used the boundaries of the higher levels of geography as overlays and assigned the underlying census block, or portions thereof, to each of the higher levels. When the higher level geography crossed the census block, a new geographic unit was created known as a split block. It is this 'block split' layer of geography that was the lowest level of geography from which the legislative districts were created.
- 3. Another goal of the OCURD project was to estimate the population in each portion of the split blocks. The project researched several means by which this could be accomplished and chose a method based upon the length of the streets in each such block. Because the - population was estimated for each portion, the number of persons was not rounded to a whole person and thus some fractional numbers will be found.

- 4. Another issue arose as the OCURD database was being used by the Joint Secretaries of the Ohio Apportionment Board to create legislative plans. This issue relates to the fact that many of the higher levels of geography, notably municipalities, wards, and precincts, contain multiple pieces of territory that are separated by distances short and long. In geographic terms, these are known as 'non-contiguous areas' (NCA) because there is some other land or water between the pieces. There are two types of NCAs: those that are not contiguous because they are islands surrounded by water and those that are not contiguous because they are legally or technically a portion of a geographic unit but surrounded by other land-based geographic units. Examples of the first type are the islands off the coast of Lake Erie. Examples of the second type abound in the state.
- 5. In most cases, the multi-part units are combined for geographic representation in GIS software. In geographic terms, these are known as 'shapes' and are assigned to a district as one unit, even though there may be separate estimates of population for the blocks that comprise the higher level unit. Because they are combined as an entire shape they can only be assigned to one district by the GIS software used for the redistricting phase of the apportionment process. The software used by the Board to undertake this process was Maptitude for Redistricting (MTR) by Caliper Corporation.
- 6. Requirements of the Ohio Constitution relate to both creating districts from contiguous territory and the maintenance of political subdivision boundaries. Therefore, making use of a multi-part area as the boundary of a district could present a situation in which a political subdivision would be split and a district would be created using non-contiguous territory.
- 7. Whatever the geographic representation of the GIS software, the controlling document as to the status of any geography is the legal definition as adopted by the Apportionment Board.
- 8. Because some areas in the higher geographic levels are multi-part units the software flagged some districts as being non-contiguous. Notes on these situations follow.

Part C. Notes on Specific Districts:

The following areas include districts that were designated by the Maptitude software as having some non-contiguous areas:

- 1. District 38—Stark County. Block 391517147013085 is split into two pieces including portions of precincts 151ANY & 151AEB. The portion in 151ANY contains no population and is a part of district 49. See the item 4 in Part A and the legal definition.
- 2. District 46—Lucas County. Several islands are located off the Lake Erie coast but are portions of Jerusalem Township. See the item 4 in Part A and the legal definition.
- 3. District 48—Stark County. Block 391517123002009 is split into three pieces including portions of precincts 151ACD, 151AME, and 151ANG. Each of these portions contains no population. The triangular portion at the lower south east of the block is a part of district 49. See the item 4 in Part A and the legal definition.
- 4. District 55—Lorain County. Several islands are located off the Lake Erie coast but are portions of Avon Lake City. See the item 4 in Part A and the legal definition.
- 5. District 83—Hardin and Logan Counties. There is one unit in the 'Block Split' layer, 390650007003086091AAR, that is unassigned in the map. It contains no population and is surrounded by district 83. See the item 4 in Part A and the legal description.
- 6. District 88—Sandusky County. One island is located in Sandusky Bay but is a portion of Riley Township. See the item 4 in Part A and the legal definition.

FINAL OHIO APPORTIONMENT PLAN As Amended, Adopted And Engrossed on September 30, 2011

7. District 89—Ottawa County. This district has three components: the portion above Sandusky Bay; the portion below Sandusky Bay; and several islands off the Lake Erie coast. See the item 4 in Part A and the legal definition.

Minority Report

September 15, 2021

Senator Vernon Sykes, Co-Chair

House Minority Leader Emilia Strong Sykes, Commissioner

The state legislative district plan adopted by the Republican members of the Ohio Redistricting Commission egregiously violates the anti-gerrymandering provisions of the Ohio Constitution. These anti-gerrymandering provisions were enshrined in the Ohio Constitution just six years ago for state legislative districts by the overwhelming majority of Ohio voters. Gerrymandering is defined by the Merriam-Webster dictionary as "the practice of dividing or arranging a territorial unit into election districts in a way that gives one political party an unfair advantage in elections." Simply put, gerrymandering is partisan unfairness. The Ohio Constitution requires partisan fairness.

Article XI of the Ohio Constitution is clear in its provisions that dictate the drawing of our state legislative maps. It requires that the maps respect the existing boundaries of counties, townships, and municipalities. It also requires that the maps reflect the statewide political preferences of Ohio voters over the previous decade of partisan statewide elections. Unfortunately, the maps adopted by the Commission's Republican majority today do neither.

Voters never intended for Republicans to draw themselves another ten years of gerrymandered districts and give themselves another decade of unchecked power.

Article XI, Section 6 of the Ohio Constitution contains two new elements not met by the Republican drawn district maps. Part (A) and Part (B) of Section 6 are important guardrails, not aspirational goals, which ensure that the main purpose of the reform effort in 2015 is met by the Commission's majority. Districts must be drawn to meet the requirements of the Constitution – taking into account compactness and contiguousness – including the fairness concept demanded by voters that is enshrined and enforced in Subsections (A) and (B) of Section 6. Subsection (A) of Section 6 states that "No general assembly district plan shall be drawn primarily to favor or disfavor a political party." In contrast, the maps adopted today go to absurd lengths to create a Republican monopoly on legislative power that they have not earned at the ballot box.

Subsection (B) of Section 6 also states that "the statewide proportion of districts whose voters, based on statewide state and federal partisan general election results during the last ten years, favor each political party shall correspond closely to the statewide preferences of the voters of Ohio." The district maps adopted by Republicans today in no way reflect the statewide preferences of voters in Ohio and do not closely correspond to the statewide election results of the last ten years. Subsections (A) and (B) cannot be read separately. Subsection (B) is important because it creates the litmus test for what constitutes primarily favoring or disfavoring a political party. No reasonable person would interpret the maps adopted by the Commission today as reflecting the will of Ohioans and not primarily favoring one party over another, as required in Section 6, Subsections (A) and (B).

In Ohio, over the past decade, the Republican Party won 54% of the statewide partisan general election votes, while Democrats won 46%. See Appendix A. These calculations were presented to the Commission in extensive witness testimony as well as by researchers at Ohio University (OU) as part of the contract between the Legislative Task Force on Redistricting and OU to produce the Ohio Common Unified Redistricting Database. The election results are not in dispute. They are also publicly available on the Ohio Secretary of State's website. One does not need to be as expert to know the statewide partisan election results. Hundreds of Ohioans were able to draw maps in the constitutionally appropriate timeframe.

Legislative maps would closely correspond with these statewide voter preferences. If they yielded close to 45 House districts that would likely be won by Democratic candidates, 54 House districts that would likely be won by Republican candidates, 15 Senate districts that would likely be won by Democratic candidates, and 18 Senate districts that would likely be won by Republican candidates. The Republicans on the Commission, in a naked attempt to maintain a gerrymandered, unearned supermajority, drew and adopted districts that would likely yield 34 Democratic House districts, 65 Republican House districts, 8 Democratic Senate districts, and 25 Republican Senate districts. The Senate district numbers in the map approved today are even worse than under the current maps approved in 2011, which were so egregiously gerrymandered that they inspired voters to go to the polls twice to put fairness and equity in our redistricting process via constitutional amendments.

In the interest of fairness, bipartisanship, and the realities of geography, demography, and politics, the Democratic members of the Ohio Redistricting Commission produced maps that followed the constitutional demands of proper district drawing, including Art. XI, Section 6 (A) and (B), which were ignored by Republicans. These three maps, respectively, produced 14 likely Democratic Senate seats and 44 likely Democratic House seats, 13 likely Democratic Senate seats and 42 likely Democratic Senate seats and 42 likely Democratic House seats. These correspond closely to the ratio of proportionality that the Ohio Constitution prescribes in Art. XI, Section 6. The Democratic members of the Commission and their staff worked tirelessly to incorporate Republican feedback into the mapmaking process while also drawing maps that adhere to the requirements of the Ohio Constitution in Art. XI, Section 6. The Democratic members of the Commission produced three separate map plans that did not disproportionately favor either party, that did represent the will of voters demonstrated over the previous decade of statewide partisan elections, and met the criteria of limiting splits of communities.

Throughout the process, Republicans appeared to follow a playbook of delay and deflection. They used as much time as possible before deadlines, skipped deadlines, and then offered unconstitutional map plans and unacceptable ultimatums to Democratic members of the legislature and the Commission. Their actions included a last-minute attempt this spring to change the Constitution to give themselves control of the process; delaying the convening of the Commission until early August; dragging their feet on approving the Commission's rules; blaming the census data delay for not convening the Commission before August 6; purposely missing the September 1 constitutional deadline for releasing a plan, holding hearings, and adopting a plan; and feigning interest in a compromise before the September 15 deadline but only offering gerrymandered maps. See Appendix B. Republicans did not demonstrate good faith participation in the process. Democratic solutions went unheeded while the Republicans made only token changes to their maps that appeared designed to protect their incumbents. This culminated again in heavily gerrymandered maps, in their second offering, sent to Democratic Commission members and staff late on September 14, the night before the constitutional deadline.

Their latest maps would produce 9 likely Democratic Senate districts and a single, additional 50-50 toss-up Republican-leaning Senate district. The remaining 23 Senate districts were drawn clearly to favor the Republican Party. It would produce 32 likely Democratic House districts and 5 toss-up Democratic-leaning House seats. This plan, like the first plan put forward by Republican map drawers, does not reflect the statewide political preferences of Ohio voters because it creates a higher proportion of Republican districts than the proportion of votes they earn in Ohio.

The GOP-adopted map lays out an absurd description of how it allegedly meets the requirements of Section 6(B). The voters of Ohio do not favor Republicans in a range of 54% to 81%.

We, the two members of the minority party, could not in good conscience violate the voters' will as expressed by the redistricting reforms approved in 2015 and 2018, nor could we ignore the Ohio Constitution's clear language that legislative district maps must correspond closely to the statewide preferences of voters as measured by the statewide partisan general election results over the past ten years. The plan adopted by the majority violates that requirement. In fact, the Republican members did not demonstrate any attempt to meet the requirements. For these reasons, we are voting against the maps the majority of the Commission is choosing to adopt.

Ohio House of Representatives Representative Emilia Sykes Minority Leader

Ohio Senate Senator Kenny Yuko Minority Leader

June 11, 2021

Governor Mike DeWine Vern Riffe Center 77 S. High St, 30th Floor Columbus, OH 43215

Dear Governor DeWine.

We write to urge you to convene the Ohio Redistricting Commission and call its first meeting so that work can begin immediately to prepare for the drawing of fair districts for the next decade. Under Ohio Constitution, Article XI, Section 3(C), the Redistricting Commission must be convened by the Governor. As you know, the Redistricting Commission has the responsibility for determining boundaries of the 99 House of Representatives districts and the 33 Ohio Senate districts. The Commission also must plan for its possible role in the creation of congressional districts. This will set the foundation for our state's form of democratic government for the next 10 years.

The final round of census enumeration and demographic data will be delivered in mid-August and there is much preparation to do over the next two months. Legislative leaders will need to appoint members to the commission and name co-chairs. The commission must adopt rules, hire staff, create a budget, and plan and build a system that allows the public to submit district plans. All of this work, which requires time and significant deliberation, must take place before the Commission begins its task of drawing and adopting maps. We also must provide adequate information and notice to allow for full public participation in the process as required by the constitution.

So that we can begin the work of creating fair districts for our state, we ask you to convene the Redistricting Commission and set its first meeting as soon as possible. We do not want this important work to be conducted at the last minute behind closed doors. Thank you for your time and urgent attention to this matter.

Article XI, Section 8(C)(2) Statement

Pursuant to Article XI, Section 8(C)(2) of the Ohio Constitution, the Ohio Redistricting Commission issues the following statement:

The Commission determined that the statewide preferences of the voters of Ohio predominately favor Republican candidates.

The Commission considered statewide state and federal partisan general election results during the last ten years. There were sixteen such contests. When considering the results of each of those elections, the Commission determined that Republican candidates won thirteen out of sixteen of those elections resulting in a statewide proportion of voters favoring statewide Republican candidates of 81% and a statewide proportion of voters favoring statewide Democratic candidates of 19%. When considering the number of votes cast in each of those elections for Republican and Democratic candidates, the statewide proportion of voters favoring statewide Republican candidates is 54% and the statewide proportion of voters favoring statewide Democratic candidates is 46%. Thus, the statewide proportion of voters favoring statewide Republican candidates is between 54% and 81% and the statewide proportion of voters favoring statewide Democratic candidates is between 19% and 46%. The Commission obtained publicly available geographic data for statewide partisan elections in 2016, 2018, and 2020. Publicly available geographic data for those elections was not available for elections in 2012 and 2014. Using this data, the Commission adopted the final general assembly district plan, which contains 85 districts (64.4%) favoring Republican candidates and 47 districts (35.6%) favoring Democratic candidates out of a total of 132 districts. Accordingly, the statewide proportion of districts whose voters favor each political party corresponds closely to the statewide preferences of the voters of Ohio.

The final general assembly district plan adopted by the Commission complies with all of the mandatory requirements of Article XI, Sections 2, 3, 4, 5, and 7 of the Ohio Constitution. The Commission's attempt to meet the aspirational standards of Article XI, Section 6 of the Ohio Constitution did not result in any violation of the mandatory requirements of Article XI, Sections 2, 3, 4, 5, and 7 of the Ohio Constitution.

Pursuant to the 2020 U.S. Census, the population of Ohio as of April 1, 2020 was 11,799,448. The target population for each district is therefore 119,186.

Article XI, Section 8(C)(2) Statement

Pursuant to Article XI, Section 8(C)(2) of the Ohio Constitution, the Ohio Redistricting Commission issues the following statement:

The Commission determined that the statewide preferences of the voters of Ohio predominately favor Republican candidates.

The Commission considered statewide state and federal partisan general election results during the last ten years. There were sixteen such contests. When considering the results of each of those elections, the Commission determined that Republican candidates won thirteen out of sixteen of those elections resulting in a statewide proportion of voters favoring statewide Republican candidates of 81% and a statewide proportion of voters favoring statewide Democratic candidates of 19%. When considering the number of votes cast in each of those elections for Republican and Democratic candidates, the statewide proportion of voters favoring statewide Republican candidates is 54% and the statewide proportion of voters favoring statewide Democratic candidates is 46%. Thus, the statewide proportion of voters favoring statewide Republican candidates is between 54% and 81% and the statewide proportion of voters favoring statewide Democratic candidates is between 19% and 46%. The Commission obtained publicly available geographic data for statewide partisan elections in 2016, 2018, and 2020. Publicly available geographic data for those elections was not available for elections in 2012 and 2014. Using this data, the Commission adopted the final general assembly district plan, which contains 85 districts (64.4%) favoring Republican candidates and 47 districts (35.6%) favoring Democratic candidates out of a total of 132 districts. Accordingly, the statewide proportion of districts whose voters favor each political party corresponds closely to the statewide preferences of the voters of Ohio.

The final general assembly district plan adopted by the Commission complies with all of the mandatory requirements of Article XI, Sections 2, 3, 4, 5, and 7 of the Ohio Constitution. The Commission's attempt to meet the aspirational standards of Article XI, Section 6 of the Ohio Constitution did not result in any violation of the mandatory requirements of Article XI, Sections 2, 3, 4, 5, and 7 of the Ohio Constitution.

Frank LaRose, Ohio Secretary of State 22 North Fourth Street, 16th Floor Columbus, Ohio 43215

Dear State Representative Terrence Upchurch,

I am writing this letter in response to the Ohio Redistricting Commission's meeting held on Monday, Sept. 13, at Tri-C's Corporate College and the redistricting of current House District 10.

As result of the redrawn district maps, current House District 10 which includes Cleveland's Wards 7, 8.9, and 10 as well as the city of East Cleveland will be merging with the city of Cleveland Heights and the city of University Heights to become House District 19 and 20.

As a 20 year Cleveland Councilman, representing Ward 9, I see this as problematic.

This change will put residents, living in these Cleveland Wards and East Cleveland, at a competitive disadvantage as merging with Cleveland Heights and University Heights will alter the demographics of the district and spectrum of voting.

In essence, members of the Cleveland Heights and University Heights communities earn high wages and contend with a different set of issues as those living in Cleveland and East Cleveland where abject poverty is more prevalent. And because Cleveland Heights and University Heights historically turn out more voters than the communities that make up the current House District 10, representation for this new district will likely come from these areas and elected officials will focus more on the needs of those who put them in office.

With that, I am asking that you strongly consider keeping Ohio House District 10 intact.

Sincerely,

Councilman Kevin Conwell, Ward 9

User Notes on Plan Geography

Part A. General Overview

- 1. To assist users in their review of the legislative district plan, the plan geography is being provided in different formats. These include a geographic data file known as a shape file and a tabular data file known as an assignment file. The geographic file includes the boundaries for each district. The tabular data file includes one record for the lowest level of geography used to create the plan and the district to which it is assigned.
- 2. Users with Geographic Information Systems (GIS) software may note a handful of instances in which the appearance of the geography assigned to each district may not match the legal boundaries. Notes follow on these instances below.
- 3. As a general caveat, whatever the geographic representation might appear to be when the legislative plan is viewed via any software, the controlling document as to the status of any geography is the legal definitions as submitted by the Joint Secretaries to the Ohio Apportionment Board. Those definitions can be found in this document.
- 4. Any geographic area of the state not specifically named in this legal definition for House and Senate Districts that is wholly contained within the boundaries of a district but not contiguous to any district boundary, is assigned to that district. Any geographic area of the state not specifically named in this legal definition that is contiguous to any district boundary is assigned to that district with which it has the longest continuous boundary. If two or more boundaries are of equal length, the area is assigned to the district with less population. All districts are contiguous including those that are contiguous only by bodies of water.
- 5. The legal definition will be posted at the following website designated by the Ohio Apportionment Board: http://www.reshapeohio.org.

Part B. Geographic Database

The underlying geographic database used to create plans for legislative districts was developed by the Urban Center at Cleveland State University (CSU) in conjunction with the Voinovich Center at Ohio University (OU) as part of the project to develop the 2010 Ohio Common and Unified Redistricting Database (OCURD). CSU was selected by bipartisan action by the co-chairs of the Ohio Legislative Task Force on Redistricting, Reapportionment and Demographic Research. The lowest level of geography in this database is not the census block but the split census block.

- The overall purpose of the project was to accommodate for the fact that many census blocks contain portions of multiple higher levels of geography, such as a precinct or a municipality.
 In geographic terms, these are known as 'split' units because they did not nest into the higher levels of geography. The project also enabled the creation of geographic layers for wards
 (which were not part of the census geographic products) and precincts that more closely
 reflect the boundaries used in the 2008 and 2010 elections.
- 2. To create a geographic system that allowed for topological integrity, the OCURD project used the boundaries of the higher levels of geography as overlays and assigned the underlying census block, or portions thereof, to each of the higher levels. When the higher level geography crossed the census block, a new geographic unit was created known as a split block. It is this 'block split' layer of geography that was the lowest level of geography from which the legislative districts were created.
- 3. Another goal of the OCURD project was to estimate the population in each portion of the split blocks. The project researched several means by which this could be accomplished and chose a method based upon the length of the streets in each such block. Because the

- population was estimated for each portion, the number of persons was not rounded to a whole person and thus some fractional numbers will be found.
- 4. Another issue arose as the OCURD database was being used by the Joint Secretaries of the Ohio Apportionment Board to create legislative plans. This issue relates to the fact that many of the higher levels of geography, notably municipalities, wards, and precincts, contain multiple pieces of territory that are separated by distances short and long. In geographic terms, these are known as 'non-contiguous areas' (NCA) because there is some other land or water between the pieces. There are two types of NCAs: those that are not contiguous because they are islands surrounded by water and those that are not contiguous because they are legally or technically a portion of a geographic unit but surrounded by other land-based geographic units. Examples of the first type are the islands off the coast of Lake Erie. Examples of the second type abound in the state.
- 5. In most cases, the multi-part units are combined for geographic representation in GIS software. In geographic terms, these are known as 'shapes' and are assigned to a district as one unit, even though there may be separate estimates of population for the blocks that comprise the higher level unit. Because they are combined as an entire shape they can only be assigned to one district by the GIS software used for the redistricting phase of the apportionment process. The software used by the Board to undertake this process was Maptitude for Redistricting (MTR) by Caliper Corporation.
- 6. Requirements of the Ohio Constitution relate to both creating districts from contiguous territory and the maintenance of political subdivision boundaries. Therefore, making use of a multi-part area as the boundary of a district could present a situation in which a political subdivision would be split and a district would be created using non-contiguous territory.
- 7. Whatever the geographic representation of the GIS software, the controlling document as to the status of any geography is the legal definition as adopted by the Apportionment Board.
- 8. Because some areas in the higher geographic levels are multi-part units the software flagged some districts as being non-contiguous. Notes on these situations follow.

Part C. Notes on Specific Districts:

The following areas include districts that were designated by the Maptitude software as having some non-contiguous areas:

- 1. District 38—Stark County. Block 391517147013085 is split into two pieces including portions of precincts 151ANY & 151AEB. The portion in 151ANY contains no population and is a part of district 49. See the item 4 in Part A and the legal definition.
- 2. District 46—Lucas County. Several islands are located off the Lake Erie coast but are portions of Jerusalem Township. See the item 4 in Part A and the legal definition.
- 3. District 48—Stark County. Block 391517123002009 is split into three pieces including portions of precincts 151ACD, 151AME, and 151ANG. Each of these portions contains no population. The triangular portion at the lower south east of the block is a part of district 49. See the item 4 in Part A and the legal definition.
- 4. District 55—Lorain County. Several islands are located off the Lake Erie coast but are portions of Avon Lake City. See the item 4 in Part A and the legal definition.
- 5. District 83—Hardin and Logan Counties. There is one unit in the 'Block Split' layer, 390650007003086091AAR, that is unassigned in the map. It contains no population and is surrounded by district 83. See the item 4 in Part A and the legal description.

Subject: [EXTERNAL] HANNAH NEWS UPDATE: Redistricting Commission Accepts Proposed GOP Plan, Sets Hearing

Schedule

Date: Thursday, September 9, 2021 2:43:32 PM

Secretary of State Security Notice This e-mail is from an external source. Think before you click links or open attachments.

The Ohio Redistricting Commission Thursday accepted proposed redistricting maps drawn by House and Senate Republican staff as its working document despite objections from Democrats, with Sen. Vern Sykes (D-Akron) saying the partisan proportions of the map "seem worse than what are existing today." Republicans, however, said the plans are just a starting point for the discussion. The commission also set the following public hearing schedule:

Sunday, Sept. 12 at 4 p.m. in Dayton.

Monday, Sept. 13 at 4 p.m. in Cleveland.

Tuesday, Sept. 14 at 10 a.m. in Columbus.

The commission will hold its next meeting on Wednesday, Sept. 15, at 10 a.m. in Statehouse Hearing Room 313. Read more in Thursday's Hannah Report.

Article XI, Section 8(C)(2) Statement

Pursuant to Article XI, Section 8(C)(2) of the Ohio Constitution, the Ohio Redistricting Commission issues the following statement:

The Commission determined that the statewide preferences of the voters of Ohio predominately favor Republican candidates.

The Commission considered statewide state and federal partisan general election results during the last ten years. There were sixteen such contests. When considering the results of each of those elections, the Commission determined that Republican candidates won thirteen out of sixteen of those elections resulting in a statewide proportion of voters favoring statewide Republican candidates of 81% and a statewide proportion of voters favoring statewide Democratic candidates of 19%. When considering the number of votes cast in each of those elections for Republican and Democratic candidates, the statewide proportion of voters favoring statewide Republican candidates is 54% and the statewide proportion of voters favoring statewide Democratic candidates is 46%. Thus, the statewide proportion of voters favoring statewide Republican candidates is between 54% and 81% and the statewide proportion of voters favoring statewide Democratic candidates is between 19% and 46%. The Commission obtained publicly available geographic data for statewide partisan elections in 2016, 2018, and 2020. Publicly available geographic data for those elections was not available for elections in 2012 and 2014. Using this data, the Commission adopted the final general assembly district plan, which contains 85 districts (64.4%) favoring Republican candidates and 47 districts (35.6%) favoring Democratic candidates out of a total of 132 districts. Accordingly, the statewide proportion of districts whose voters favor each political party corresponds closely to the statewide preferences of the voters of Ohio.

The final general assembly district plan adopted by the Commission complies with all of the mandatory requirements of Article XI, Sections 2, 3, 4, 5, and 7 of the Ohio Constitution. The Commission's attempt to meet the aspirational standards of Article XI, Section 6 of the Ohio Constitution did not result in any violation of the mandatory requirements of Article XI, Sections 2, 3, 4, 5, and 7 of the Ohio Constitution.

Comparison of OCRC, Sykes, and Wise district plans

Geoff Wise, Ph.D. Cincinnati, OH Submitted 9/7/21

Background

- Article XI of the Ohio Constitution substantially reforms the 2021 process for drawing Ohio Statehouse boundaries
 - The process is charged to an Ohio Redistricting Commission (ORC) comprised of 7 state leaders, with the intent of bipartisan collaboration that does not favor or disfavor a party
 - Multiple constraints were added to minimize slicing of counties, large municipalities, and communities of color
 - Delay in receipt of US Census data has compressed the time to finalize maps
- The ORC has not produced a map by the 9/1/21 deadline
 - The 8/31/21 public meeting of the ORC failed to even set a timetable for meeting the second-round 9/15 deadline
- Several maps were submitted via the ORC's public input portal by 9/1
 - Of particular note were two maps from:
 - ORC co-chair Vernon Sykes (Democrat)
 - the Ohio Citizens' Redistricting Commission, a left-leaning public advocacy group associated with the constitutional reform advocates
 - These maps were guided by Article XI principles, but have some drawbacks

Why another map?

- The dynamics of the 8/31/21 ORC meeting suggest we are far from a collaborative bipartisan process to meet the mandated deadline
 - As of 9/5/21, there have been no plans proposed from the Republican members of the ORC
- I have analyzed the Sykes and OCRC maps and determined that they have emphasized proportionality over district competitiveness.
 - They also appear unclear on Senate incumbency
- I am therefore proposing a more competitive map that also strikes a more natural balance between GOP and Dem interests.
- To correct weaknesses in my pre-9/1/21 submission, I have redrawn several districts to increase minority empowerment and minimize big-city splits, and specified Senate incumbency

A comparison of my plan to OCRC and Sykes is presented in this document

Quantitative analysis methodology

- My maps, tweaked from my 8/31 submission to improve minority representation, were generated in Dave's Redistricting Analysis (DRA), a common platform for re-districting efforts
- To compare key metrics of map quality, the Sykes and OCRC maps were loaded into DRA from the .csv / .txt files posted to redistricting.ohio.gov/public-input
- According to DavesRedistricting.org, DRA uses the 2020 Census for precinct shape and demographics. The anticipated GOP/Dem two-party vote splits are a composite of the 2016 and 2020 presidential elections, the 2016 and 2018 U.S. Senate elections, and the 2018 Governor + Attorney General election.
- I have a personal contact at DRA who would be happy to walk the ORC through any questions on the analysis algorithms.

Analysis: competitiveness, minority power

We can significantly increase the number of competitive districts

Analysis – District shape

Know It When You See It scores	Wise	OCRC	Sykes
House KIWYSI compactness	56	56	52
Senate KIWYSI compactness	53	62	48

For the Senate, I get dinged for:

19: capturing city of Delaware with a N. Columbus district

4: bundling SE Butler w/ N. Hamilton

14: Keeping S. Ohio river area together

of Big City splits	Wise	OCRC	Sykes
Columbus	10	10	11
Cleveland	3	7	3
Cincinnati	3	4	2
Toledo	2	2	2
Akron	1	3	1
Dayton	1	2	1
Canton	0	0	0
Youngstown	0	0	0

^{} A tiny piece of Cincinnati was used to foster a competitive GOP district in eastern Hamilton County.

Rural county splits*	Wise	OCRC	Sykes
House	15	21	12
Senate	7	9	6

^{*}Splits are inevitable in urban and suburban counties

Analysis: partisan bias

- The main focus of map-making is how votes will translate into seats
 - Often illustrated as a x-y plot of votes → seats (see next 2 pages)
 - Precincts can be "horse-traded" to manipulate this within the politically relevant range
 - To achieve a biased "gerrymandered" result
 - To enforce legal requirements
 - To correct for random fluctuations
 - Making districts more competitive will make the seats more responsive (stronger than proportional) to vote swings
 - Mandating proportionality will
 - Force a "bend" in the votes-seats curve
 - Make it harder for GOP- or Dem-leaning (unbalanced) states to achieve 50% seats at 50% votes
- All three plans have reasonable predicted votes → seats in the politically relevant range
 - Refer back to slide 9 for expected seats table
 - See next two pages for seats-vote curve comparisons

Analysis: Partisan bias via seats(votes) curves

Analysis: Partisan bias via seats(votes) curves

Comments on design choices

- District-drawing creates tradeoffs among representation, district shape, partisan bias and competitiveness
- Adhering to municipal non-splitting will drive down compactness and the flexibility to tradeoff other considerations
- Increasing the number of competitive seats naturally makes the seats more responsive to votes (greater than proportional)
- Given the "creative" shapes of 2011 districts and the above constraints, it is unrealistic to also solve perfectly for Senate incumbency

Why OCRC scores better on Senate representation for nonwhites: Dayton option

My map pulls district 37 in with 71 & 72 to form a GOP-leaning competitive district. 38+39+40 form a competitive Dem-leaning district with a 32.4% Black population, which is strong but does not qualify as a minority district.

OCRC's map combines 70, 71, 72

Dayton-area House districts into one

37.5% Black Dem-heavy Senate district, surrounded by an irregular, elongated

GOP-dominated district (69 + 73 + 74)

I decided to split Dayton's 2 Statehouse districts into separate Senate districts to increase competition and compactness. The ORC is welcome to reverse the Senate assignments of 37 and 39 if keeping communities together is higher priority.

OCRC's excessive partitioning of Cleveland and Akron may have also been done to boost minority vote power.

Assigning Senate "incumbency" (Article XI, Section 5)

"At any time the boundaries of senate districts are changed in any general assembly district plan made pursuant to any provision of this article, a senator whose term will not expire within two years of the time the plan becomes effective shall represent, for the remainder of the term for which the senator was elected, the senate district that contains the largest portion of the population of the district from which the senator was elected, and the district shall be given the number of the district from which the senator was elected. If more than one senator whose term will not so expire would represent the same district by following the provisions of this section, the plan shall designate which senator shall represent the district and shall designate which district the other senator or senators shall represent for the balance of their term or terms."

The extreme 2011 Senate district shapes create problems for assigning old districts to new ones. For 11 districts in my plan, the mapping appears straightforward; see next page. For most other districts, it is less clear-cut but there appears to be a lead choice.

The unavoidable problem is in Cuyahoga County. The 2011 map packed Dems (with addition of a western Lake County House district) into three deep blue Senate districts to create a snaky, near-tossup district 24, making it difficult to map onto compact shapes..

See next page for details and a possible solution.

15

Putting OH Senators in their places

Colored = Wise plan
Black district lines: 2011 map

= reasonable 1:1 match

? = imperfect. ? placed in area that seems best overlap

= "orphan" seat

Hamilton, Franklin, Lucas, and Montgomery counties can be mapped reasonably well.

See next page for addressing Cuyahoga County and the "orphan" seat.

Fixing incumbency problems from 2011 gerrymandering

- Unfortunately, both Senate districts 22 and 26 are held by Senators whose terms continue into 2024, with hometowns in the new #26.
 - Reineke (22) in Tiffin
 - Romanchuk (26) in Ontario
- Ideally, one of these Senators (tentatively Reineke) could agree to represent new #22 through 2024.
- Additionally, Sen. Dolan (current snake#24) must find a new home among new #21,23,24,25. The remaining 3 new seats will then open for 2023.
- Current Senators for districts 4, 8, 12, 14, 18, 20, 22, 26, 28, 30 have imperfect but less problematic new assignments
 - · see previous page

Assessing political viability

- Publicly available technology has advanced to the point that an obviously biased map will be detected and rejected.
- Voters will reward a transparent process that is faithful to Article XI.
 The reverse of this statement is also true.
- Therefore, it is in the ORC's best interest to follow both the spirit and letter of Article XI
 - GOP members of the ORC may believe they will be punished for adopting a plan proposed by Democrats or left-leaning think tanks
 - The best chance for a 10-year map (accepted by both parties) is a GOP-led proposal that is demonstrably fair

Sounds right to me. We are trying to get the Ds to agree to the schedule but Sam requested an additional stop in Akron/Canton. Matt, can you add the setting of the meeting establishing the rules to the agenda so they address it tomorrow?

Subject: Re: Draft-Oath

Like a chair of any board/commission, I think the co-chairs could simply announce/set the schedule of informal regional hearings without a vote of the commission tomorrow. But, the co-chairs could propose a schedule to the commission tomorrow (that should hopefully be agreed on in advance of tomorrow) and have the commission approve without objection?

Of course, establishing the date of the commission meeting where the rules are considered/voted on will need approval of the commission in accordance with the constitution.

Does anyone agree/disagree with any of this?

Frank

Mike/Sam,

As a follow up to our discussion at our meeting today, can we still expect to receive from you the electronic equivalency files sometime today/tonight? We're really looking forward to seeing those files so that our respective Commission members can have clearer insight into the specifics of your proposals, and correspondingly enable them to work with your members towards a possible solution.

Any insight you can provide on timing would be greatly appreciated.

Thanks again for your efforts.

Frank
