Mike/Sam,

As a follow up to our discussion at our meeting today, can we still expect to receive from you the electronic equivalency files sometime today/tonight? We're really looking forward to seeing those files so that our respective Commission members can have clearer insight into the specifics of your proposals, and correspondingly enable them to work with your members towards a possible solution.

Any insight you can provide on timing would be greatly appreciated.

Thanks again for your efforts.

Subject: Ohio Redistricting Commission: Schedule for the Adoption of Procedural Rules

Paul & Scott,

This morning's inaugural meeting of the Ohio Redistricting Commission had "Scheduling" as its final agenda item. After the Governor turned the meeting over to Co-Chair Speaker Cupp and Co-Chair Senator Sykes, each of them spoke about the tentative regional meeting schedule, which was entirely appropriate. However, as you know, Art. XI, § 1(C) of the Ohio Constitution provides that:

"(C) At the first meeting of the commission, \dots the commission shall set a schedule for the adoption of procedural rules for the operation of the commission."

Setting this schedule for the adoption of procedural rules for the operation of the Commission was not done before the meeting was adjourned. I am certain that this was simply an inadvertent oversight by the Speaker and the Senator, but Secretary LaRose has asked me to inquire of the Co-Chairs when the schedule for the adoption of Commission rules will be addressed by the Commission. Please let me know. Thank you.

Dear Sam:

We will certainly add a stop in Akron on Monday, 8/23. To lessen the drive time, it might make more sense to see if Youngstown can host their meeting in the evening and fit in Akron in the 2-4 time slot. We will firm up details and recirculate.

Nick,

Thanks so much for sending these. I appreciate all the time that you and Mandi put into trying to track down the 2012 and 2014 geography for us all this week. I knew it was going to be a long shot trying to find the precinct lines for 2012 & 2014 general elections, but again, we all very much appreciate the efforts.

Like a chair of any board/commission, I think the co-chairs could simply announce/set the schedule of informal regional hearings without a vote of the commission tomorrow. But, the co-chairs could propose a schedule to the commission tomorrow (that should hopefully be agreed on in advance of tomorrow) and have the commission approve without objection?

Of course, establishing the date of the commission meeting where the rules are considered/voted on will need approval of the commission in accordance with the constitution.

Does anyone agree/disagree with any of this?

Frank

In the event of a special meeting of an emergency nature, the Co-Chairs' designated staff shall provide notice of such meeting by providing the notice described in paragraph (A)(1), (A)(2), or (A)(3) of this rule. In such event, however, the notice need not be given twenty-four hours prior to the meeting, but shall be given immediately upon the scheduling of such meeting.

Such call and notice to each member of the Ohio Redistricting Commission shall be issued jointly by the Co-Chairs, or may be dispensed with if a motion to recess a meeting designates a time certain for continuation of that meeting. However, a meeting may be jointly called by the Co-Chairs, upon proper notice, prior to a previously designated meeting, should the Co-Chairs deem it necessary.

This is a working draft and subject to revision

Rule 06 | Quorum.

A majority of the Seven members of the Ohio Redistricting Commission constitutes a quorum. A majority of the Ohio Redistricting Commission is required for any official actions of the Commission, including but not limited to the adoption of a plan of redistricting. All motions before the Ohio Redistricting Commission shall be determined by majority vote and in accordance with Article XI of the Ohio Constitution, and, if necessary, Article XIX of the Ohio Constitution. Members of the Ohio Redistricting Commission or their designees may, from time to time, conduct public hearings referred to in Rule 08, absent a quorum of members.

Rule 07 | Records retention and public records policies.

The Co-Chairs' designated staff shall notify the members of the Ohio Redistricting Commission or their designees of the time, date, and location of each public hearing in the manner prescribed in paragraph (A)(1), (A)(2), or (A)(3) of Rule 02 and in no event less than twenty-four hours prior to each public hearing.

The Co-Chairs of the Ohio Redistricting Commission, or their designees, shall preside over these public hearings. Members of the Ohio Redistricting Commission need not be present at these public hearings. Each member of the Ohio Redistricting Commission may designate an individual(s) to represent the member at any or all of these public hearings. Any individual so designated to represent a member of the Ohio Redistricting Commission shall have no voting rights. No official business or action of the Ohio Redistricting Commission shall take place at the public hearings referred to in this rule, except for the receiving of public comment and input or adopting procedural rules for the operation of the Commission; provided that, the Co-Chairs must provide at least twenty-four hours written notice to the Commission members for there to be a vote on adopting procedural rules for the operation of the Commission.

Only members of the Ohio Redistricting Commission may offer amendments to a general assembly district plan or, if necessary, a congressional district plan.

The Co-Chairs of the Ohio Redistricting Commission may offer amendments on behalf of those persons sponsoring redistricting plans who are not members of the Commission.

Rule 11 | Publication of redistricting plan.

After a final general assembly district plan is adopted by the Ohio Redistricting Commission in accordance with Article XI of the Ohio Constitution, the Co-Chairs of the Commission shall coordinate with the Governor for the publication of the adopted plan no later than September 30, 2021. The first publication of the plan shall be made electronically on the Ohio Redistricting Commission's website and in its entirety in at least four Ohio newspapers that are geographically diverse, and may be made in a preprinted insert. The second publication shall be made in abbreviated form in those newspapers pursuant to section 7.16 of the Revised Code. No further newspaper publications are required if the second, abbreviated notice meets the requirements of section 7.16 of the Revised Code.

If the Ohio Redistricting Commission adopts a congressional district plan in accordance with Article XIX of the Ohio Constitution, the Co-Chairs of the Commission shall publish the plan no later than November 15, 2021. The first publication of the plan shall be made electronically on the Ohio Redistricting Commission's website and in its entirety in at least four Ohio newspapers that are geographically diverse, and may be made in a preprinted insert. No further newspaper publications are required if the second, abbreviated notice meets the requirements of section 7.16 of the Revised Code

Rule 12 \mid Reconvening the Redistricting Commission.

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Proposed Rules for Thursday

Secretary of State Security Notice
This e-mail is from an external source. Think before you click links or open attachments.

All,

As a follow up from last week, attached are the draft rules that we are hoping to adopt on Thursday at the Lima meeting. We are sending them to you now so that your offices have time to review them before Thursday.

As I mentioned, the House and Senate democratic caucuses have been advocating for adopting the Commission's rules on Thursday. We believe the attached rules should enable us to do that, on a bipartisan basis.

Please note, however, there appears to be 1 issue in the attached draft that is not completely resolved yet; specifically, the 2nd paragraph in Rule 10. Staff for the senate democratic caucus has requested that the rule require 3 public hearings to be held prior to September 1. As I have discussed again with them, because of the 4+ month delay in receiving the census data, having a map introduced, considered at 3 public hearings and voted on by September 1 is not realistically possible.

Consequently, we are proposing instead that there be 3 public hearings (the Constitution only requires 1) prior to adoption on September 15. Paul and I believe that this idea is much more realistic and doable. And from what Paul has told me, staff for the House democratic caucus agree. Thus, if the Senate democratic caucus can agree to this, the Rules should be ready to go on Thursday.

In the meantime, we wanted your offices to see the latest draft as soon as possible.

Please contact us if you have any questions or concerns about the attached rules.

Rule 01 | Establishing authority.

- (A) Article XI, Section 1 of the Ohio Constitution creates the Ohio Redistricting Commission, which is comprised of seven persons who are responsible for the redistricting of the State of Ohio for the general assembly, and, if necessary, for congress. Such persons, collectively, shall be referred to in these rules as "Members" and, individually, as "Member."
- (B) These rules are adopted in compliance with, and under the authority of, Article XI, Section 1 of the Ohio Constitution.
- (C) The rules stated herein, as supplemented by Robert's Rules of Order, shall be the procedural rules for the operation of the Ohio Redistricting Commission.

Rule 02 | Notices of meetings and hearings.

- (A) Any person may ascertain the time and place of all regularly scheduled meetings, the time, place, and purpose of all specially scheduled meetings, and the time and place of public hearings of the Ohio Redistricting Commission through one of the following methods:

- (3) Requesting electronic notice of all meetings of the Ohio Redistricting Commission. The Co-Chairs' designated staff shall jointly maintain a list of all persons who have requested such notification. A request for such notification shall:
 - (a) Contain the name of the person making the request and an email address to which electronic notice should be sent;
 - (b) Be sent in writing either:
 - (i) By mail to:

Ohio Redistricting Commission c/o Clerk of the Ohio Senate Ohio Statehouse Columbus, Ohio 43215

(ii) Or, by electronic mail to: meetings@redistricting.ohio.gov

- (c) Be received forty-eight hours prior to any regularly scheduled meeting, specially scheduled meeting, or public hearing.
- (C) In the event of a regularly scheduled meeting, specially scheduled meeting not of an emergency nature, or public hearing, the Co-Chairs' designated staff shall provide notice of such meeting or hearing by providing the notice described in paragraph (A)(1), (A)(2), or (A)(3) of this rule not later than twenty-four hours prior to the meeting or hearing. In the event of a special meeting of an emergency nature, the Co-Chairs' designated staff shall provide notice of such meeting by providing the notice described in paragraph (A)(1), (A)(2), or (A)(3) of this rule. In such event, however, the notice need not be given twenty-four hours prior to the meeting, but shall be given immediately upon the scheduling of such meeting.

Rule 03 | Open meetings.

All meetings and public hearings of the Ohio Redistricting Commission shall be held in accordance with the Sunshine Law, section 121.22 of the Revised Code, as amended. All meetings and public hearings of the Ohio Redistricting Commission shall be broadcast by electronic means of transmission using a medium readily accessible by the general public.

Rule 04 | Officers; participation of members; minutes.

- (A) The Ohio Redistricting Commission shall have two Co-Chairs selected by the legislative leaders in the Senate and the House of Representatives of each of the two largest political parties represented in the general assembly, acting jointly by political party to serve.
- (B) Each member of the Ohio Redistricting Commission shall be entitled to participate in all voting and debates, regardless of position held on the Commission.
- (C) Minutes of each meeting of the Ohio Redistricting Commission shall be maintained by the Co-Chairs' designated staff. Such minutes shall be circulated among the members and adopted by majority vote at a subsequent meeting of the Ohio Redistricting Commission. Transcripts of meetings of the Ohio Redistricting Commission shall be provided upon request and completion and verification through the Ohio Government Telecommunications Service.

Rule 05 | Calling of meetings.

After the initial meeting of the Ohio Redistricting Commission, at which the Commission is convened, a meeting of the Commission may be called upon twenty-four hours notice. Such call and notice to each member of the Ohio Redistricting Commission shall be issued jointly by the Co-Chairs, or may be dispensed with if a motion to recess a meeting designates a time certain for continuation of that meeting. However, a meeting may be jointly called by the Co-Chairs, upon proper notice, prior to a previously designated meeting, should the Co-Chairs deem it necessary.

Rule 06 | Quorum.

A majority of the seven members of the Ohio Redistricting Commission constitutes a quorum. A majority of the Ohio Redistricting Commission is required for any official actions of the Commission, including but not limited to the adoption of a plan of redistricting. All motions before the Ohio Redistricting Commission shall be determined by majority vote and in accordance with Article XI of the Ohio Constitution, and, if necessary, Article XIX of the Ohio Constitution. Members of the Ohio Redistricting Commission or their designees may, from time to time, conduct public hearings referred to in Rule 08, absent a quorum of members.

Rule 07 | Records retention and public records policies.

- (A) Pursuant to section 149.34 of the Revised Code, the Ohio Redistricting Commission shall adopt the Ohio department of administrative services general records retention schedules for general administration records, personnel records, fiscal records, and information technology records.
- (B) Pursuant to division (E) of section of 149.43 of the Revised Code, the Ohio Redistricting Commission shall adopt a public records policy.

Rule 08 | Public hearings.

The Co-Chairs' designated staff shall organize a series of public hearings in locations around the State of Ohio for the Ohio Redistricting Commission's members or their designees to receive public comment and input on the redistricting process. All,

As a follow up from last week, attached are the draft rules that we are hoping to adopt on Thursday at the Lima meeting. We are sending them to you now so that your offices have time to review them before Thursday.

As I mentioned, the House and Senate democratic caucuses have been advocating for adopting the Commission's rules on Thursday. We believe the attached rules should enable us to do that, on a bipartisan basis.

Please note, however, there appears to be 1 issue in the attached draft that is not completely resolved yet; specifically, the 2nd paragraph in Rule 10. Staff for the senate democratic caucus has requested that the rule require 3 public hearings to be held prior to September 1. As I have discussed again with them, because of the 4+ month delay in receiving the census data, having a map introduced, considered at 3 public hearings and voted on by September 1 is not realistically possible.

Consequently, we are proposing instead that there be 3 public hearings (the Constitution only requires 1) prior to adoption on September 15. Paul and I believe that this idea is much more realistic and doable. And from what Paul has told me, staff for the House democratic caucus agree. Thus, if the Senate democratic caucus can agree to this, the Rules should be ready to go on Thursday.

In the meantime, we wanted your offices to see the latest draft as soon as possible.

Please contact us if you have any questions or concerns about the attached rules.

- (B) These rules are adopted in compliance with, and under the authority of, Article XI, Section 1 of the Ohio Constitution.

(ii) Or, by electronic mail to: meetings@redistricting.ohio.gov

- (c) Be received forty-eight hours prior to any regularly scheduled meeting, specially scheduled meeting, or public hearing.
- (C) In the event of a regularly scheduled meeting, specially scheduled meeting not of an emergency nature, or public hearing, the Co-Chairs' designated staff shall provide notice of such meeting or hearing by providing the notice described in paragraph (A)(1), (A)(2), or (A)(3) of this rule not later than twenty-four hours prior to the meeting or hearing. In the event of a special meeting of an emergency nature, the Co-Chairs' designated staff shall provide notice of such meeting by providing the notice described in paragraph (A)(1), (A)(2), or (A)(3) of this rule. Such call and notice to each member of the Ohio Redistricting Commission shall be issued jointly by the Co-Chairs, or may be dispensed with if a motion to recess a meeting designates a time certain for continuation of that meeting. However, a meeting may be jointly called by the Co-Chairs, upon proper notice, prior to a previously designated meeting, should the Co-Chairs deem it necessary.

Rule 06 | Quorum.

A majority of the seven members of the Ohio Redistricting Commission constitutes a quorum. A majority of the Ohio Redistricting Commission is required for any official actions of the Commission, including but not limited to the adoption of a plan of redistricting. All motions before the Ohio Redistricting Commission shall be determined by majority vote and in accordance with Article XI of the Ohio Constitution, and, if necessary, Article XIX of the Ohio Constitution. Members of the Ohio Redistricting Commission or their designees may, from time to time, conduct public hearings referred to in Rule 08, absent a quorum of members.

Rule 07 | Records retention and public records policies.

The Co-Chairs of the Ohio Redistricting Commission, or their designees, shall preside over these public hearings. Members of the Ohio Redistricting Commission need not be present at these public hearings. Each member of the Ohio Redistricting Commission may designate an individual(s) to represent the member at any or all of these public hearings. Any individual so designated to represent a member of the Ohio Redistricting Commission shall have no voting rights. No official business or action of the Ohio Redistricting Commission shall take place at the public hearings referred to in this rule, except for the receiving of public comment and input or adopting procedural rules for the operation of the Commission; provided that, the Co-Chairs must provide at least twenty-four hours written notice to the Commission members for there to be a vote on adopting procedural rules for the operation of the Commission.

Mr. Rowe,

Governor DeWine appreciates Senator Sykes invitation and would like to have the meeting. The Governor asked if the Lt. Governor could also attend the meeting? I am assuming a very small number of staff would be acceptable as well? Who would be the best person from your team to put my scheduling people in touch with? Again we appreciate the invitation and the reach out.

Hello Matthew,

Senator Vernon Sykes, co-chair of the Ohio Redistricting Commission, would like to extend a personal invitation to Governor DeWine to meet with our map-drawing team that put together the plan presented at this week's commission meeting. This would be an opportunity for Governor DeWine to see a detailed view of our map, ask questions and provide input. We have given a similar presentation to Auditor Faber. Please let me know if Governor DeWine is interested and we can proceed with scheduling a meeting.

Dear Mr. Wise:

Please note that some state constitutions permit the highest court in the state to issue advisory opinions in the absence of a current case or controversy, the Ohio Constitution does not permit the Ohio Supreme Court to issue such opinions.

Amber, thanks for the answer.

This is a critical piece to get right. I am copying the ORC co-chairs to express my opinion that we should get this clarification from the Ohio Supreme Court prior to adopting a map, rather than creating a map that may be later ruled unconstitutional.

Mr. Wise,

I am writing to respond to your inquiry on Ohio Constitution, Article XI, Section 6(B) which states, for General Assembly districts, that "[t]he statewide proportion of districts whose voters, based on statewide state and federal partisan general election results during the last ten years, favor each political party shall correspond closely to the statewide preferences of the voters of Ohio." Unfortunately, LSC cannot provide guidance on this issue.

The redistricting criterion described above is called proportionality. There is not much literature or case law about this criterion because it is very new. In fact, only Ohio and Missouri have adopted proportionality as a redistricting requirement in their state constitutions. Missouri adopted its provision in 2020 (Mo. Const., art. III, sec. 3(c) and 7). Additionally, Michigan has a similar requirement adopted in 2018 (Mi. Const., art. IV, sec. 6). No districts in any of the three states have been drawn using these criteria yet; therefore, there is no data to share on the process nor any court opinions on this method of drawing districts.

Proportionality may mean the percentage of General Assembly districts represented by one political party should approximately match the percentage of voters in the state associated with that political party. The process for drawing proportional districts may involve first calculating "voters' statewide preferences" as a percentage, and then drawing the districts in a way that approximates this percentage. The Constitution does not specify how to calculate this percentage. It also should be noted that the Ohio Constitution prioritizes certain redistricting criteria over others. Proportionality in Ohio may not be achieved at the expense of other required redistricting criteria. (Ohio Const., art. XI, secs. 2, 3, 4, 5, and 7.)

Since the proportionality requirements are novel and untested in court, it is not possible to predict what the Ohio Supreme Court would decide if a map was challenged on the basis of proportionality.

Best,

Amber Hardesty

Ms. Zhan.

I have drafted an Ohio Statehouse map as part of the public input to this month's redistricting process. There is a critical section 6B of Article XI that I believe needs further interpretation -- perhaps even by the courts.

(B) The statewide proportion of districts whose voters, based on statewide state and federal partisan general election results during the last ten years, favor each political party shall correspond closely to the statewide preferences of the voters of Ohio.

Is this strictly interpreted as proportionality; e.g. 55% votes = 55% seats? Or just that when the vote swings one way, the seats should swing in that direction as well? Your LSC brief #134 merely repeats the 6B language without offering an interpretation that is necessary for defining clear restrictions on the shape of the seats-vs-votes curve.

This could become a major sticking point in the ORC adoption of maps. This is obviously quite urgent! Thanks for any clarifying guidance. I may have testify to the ORC later this week, and I want to be sure I am faithfully representing the established legal perspective.

Kind regards, Geoff Wise Cincinnati OH
