My apologies for the confusion this morning. Attached is a spreadsheet with two tabs. The first tab is a list of accounts that have been geo-located in both Ferguson and Baltimore during times of unrest AND are not a news or journalist account. We ran a link analysis job for these accounts and took the common connections - removing famous people, reporters, and news organizations from it. This resulted in a social network that contains 58 additional accounts. These are in the second tab.

Steve

My apologies. Even the file I sent this morning was not entirely accurate. Will resend.
