

Use of Undercover Accounts

Social Media has become a language of its own over the last two decades. As a form of communication, it is critical to successful Investigations. Things to consider:

- Undercover Accounts typically violate the User Agreement from social media platforms
- Intellectual Property is a thing
- Documentation is the fine line between focused investigations and targeted harassment.

E1420