

Building a Database of Persons of Interest

- Once a target profile has been collected, the data is retained for the life of the Voyager system. As users collect and analyze profiles of interest, tagging Persons of Interests with notes, Voyager will automatically identify these Persons of Interests in each newly-displayed Topology.
- Revealing connections to networks previously unrealized, over time, Voyager users build a robust database of Persons of Interest (displayed as orange nodes in Topology at right)

