

Justice at Stake

"I never felt so much like a hooker down by the bus station ... as I did in a judicial race. Everyone interested in contributing has very specific interests. They mean to be buying a vote."
Paul Pfeifer, Ohio Supreme Court justice

About Issues State Federal Diversity Resources Newsroom Partners Help Us Video

Site GO

Congressional Correspondence

Federal Resources

Federal News and Releases

Judicial Nomination News

Federal Overview

Diversity

The Founders and Our Courts

America's Courts: A Primer

Facts, Statistics and Quotes

Congressional Correspondence

Letter to Senate Leadership on Examining Issues Related to Citizens United v. FEC

June 3, 2014

Justice at Stake wrote this letter to Senate leadership thanking them for their continued examination of issues related to Citizens United v. FEC.

Letter to Senators on Judicial Diversity

March 27, 2014

In a letter, Justice at Stake and other organizations urge Senators to work toward filling judicial vacancies with judges who are not only exceptionally well-qualified, but who also reflect the full diversity of the legal profession.

Letter to the House Judiciary Committee Leadership on Staffing the Federal Courts

October 29, 2013

In a letter to House Judiciary Committee leadership, Justice at Stake addresses issues with a committee hearing on federal courts staffing.

Letter to Congress Supporting Critical Resources for the Federal Judiciary

September 17, 2013

In a letter to Congress, Justice at Stake along with 26 other organizations call to attention the need for adequate funding for the federal judiciary in Fiscal Year 2014.

Letter to the Senate Judiciary Committee, Subcommittee on Bankruptcy and the Courts

September 10, 2013

Justice at Stake sent a letter to the Senate Judiciary Committee's Subcommittee on Bankruptcy and the Courts expressing support for the Federal Judgeship Act of 2013.

Letter to U.S. Senators on Yes-or-No Votes for D.C. Circuit Court Nominees

August 28, 2013

Justice at Stake was one of the 97 signatories on a letter to U.S. Senators supporting Yes-or-No Votes for the president's three nominees to the U.S. Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia Circuit.

Letter to Senate Leadership on the Federal Judgeship Act of 2013

July 31, 2013

In a letter to Senate Leadership, Justice at Stake supports the Federal Judgeship Act of 2013.

Letter to the Senate Judiciary Committee, Subcommittee on Bankruptcy and the Courts

July 23, 2013

Justice at Stake sent this letter to Congressional leadership to thank them for their attention to

Tools

Congressional Correspondence RSS

Search

News Release Archives

Show All

the issue of sequestration's effects on the federal courts and the issues raised at the hearing, "Sequestering Justice: How the Budget Crisis Is Undermining Our Courts."

Letter to Congressional Leadership Supporting Amendment #1250 to S.744

June 21, 2013

Justice at Stake sent this letter to Congressional leadership in support of Amendment #1250 to S.744, which would support the courts in meeting additional responsibilities that may result from passage of comprehensive immigration reform legislation.

Letter to Congressional Leadership Opposing H.R. 2239

June 11, 2013

Justice at Stake sent this letter to Congressional leadership this week opposing H.R. Bill 2239, which would eliminate three seats from the D.C. Circuit Court of Appeals.

Letter to Congressional Leadership in Support of Increased Court Funding

May 28, 2013

In a letter to the leadership of the House and Senate Judiciary Committee, Justice at Stake urges congressional leaders to support additional funding for federal courts.

Letter to Sens. Leahy and Grassley Regarding Amendment S. 744

May 9, 2013

Justice at Stake wrote this letter to Senators Patrick Leahy and Chuck Grassley regarding S. 744, the Border Security, Economic Opportunity, and Immigration Modernization Act.

JAS Letter to House and Senate Leadership on Sequestration

May 3, 2013

Justice at Stake wrote this letter to the Senate and House leadership urging them to identify a bipartisan solution to allay the damage that sequestration is beginning to cause.

Letter to the Senate Judiciary Committee re D.C. Circuit Court

April 12, 2013

In a letter to the leadership of the Senate Judiciary Committee, Justice at Stake urges senators to not consider legislation which would eliminate three seats from the D.C. Circuit Court of Appeals.

JAS Letter to Congressional Leadership on Sequestration

March 19, 2013

Justice at Stake sent this letter to House and Senate leadership urging a bipartisan solution to allay the damage that sequestration will cause.

JAS, 22 Other Groups Send Letter re Judicial Nominations

November 27, 2012

In a letter to Majority Leader Reid and Minority Leader McConnell, a broad coalition of 23 national organizations, including Justice at Stake, urged Senate leaders to cooperate and hold confirmation votes on pending judicial nominees during the lame-duck session.

Letter to House and Senate Leadership, re Sequestration

November 8, 2012

Justice at Stake wrote this letter to the House and Senate leadership urging decisive action be taken to find a bipartisan solution to preempt the damage that would result from sequestration.

Letter on Judicial Nominations

November 8, 2012

Justice at Stake wrote this letter to Majority Leader Reid and Republican Leader McConnell expressing concern for the state of the judicial confirmation process. Justice at Stake urged prompt action be taken regarding all pending nominees.

Letter to the Senate Judiciary Committee

September 12, 2012

Justice at Stake wrote this letter to the Senate Judiciary Committee concerning Citizens United and the threat it poses to public confidence in state judiciaries.

Letter to House Leadership, re FCC Disclosure Rules

June 13, 2012

Justice at Stake wrote the following letter to House leaders John Boehner (R-OH) and Nancy Pelosi (D-CA), opposing an attempt to scuttle Federal Communications Commission rules that would improve public access to filings of campaign advertising information.

Letter to House Appropriations Committee re FCC Disclosure Rules

June 13, 2012

JAS at Stake wrote the following letter to the House Appropriations Committee, opposing an attempt to scuttle Federal Communications Commission rules that would improve public access to filings of campaign advertising information.

JAS Joins Letter Urging Action on Court Picks

February 17, 2011

Justice at Stake is one of 76 groups to sign a letter to U.S. Senate leaders urging faster action on federal judicial nominees. For details, see Gavel Grab.

Justice at Stake Joins Letter Urging Timely Confirmation of Court Nominees

February 16, 2011

WASHINGTON, Feb. 16—The Justice at Stake Campaign is among 76 groups urging the U.S. Senate to speed its pace of judicial confirmations, saying that “obstructionist practices” have delayed up-or-down votes, and that severe shortages on the federal bench have reached a “state of crisis.”

Justice at Stake, one of the signers of a letter to the Senate Judiciary Committee.

February 15, 2011

On February 15, 2011, Justice at Stake were among 76 organizations and groups to co-sign a letter urging the Senate to continue to work together in a bipartisan fashion to proceed with the confirmation votes on judicial nominees who have been approved by the Senate Judiciary Committee.

Justice at Stake

717 D Street, NW, Suite 203 | Washington, DC 20004
Phone: 202-588-9700 | Fax: 202-588-9485

JUSTICE AT STAKE CAMPAIGN CFC# 47694

Keep our courts fair and impartial.

Get Involved

Help Justice at Stake protect fair and impartial courts.

