Dear Mr. Bello:

I am one of the persons in my organization that will be given access to the work performed under the above referenced Agreement and its contents relating to a possible Predictive Forecasting of Crime Solution project (the project) for the NYPD. Unless I receive express written permission from an authorized representative from the New York City Police Department to vary the terms of the Agreement, I hereby agree to the following:

I understand and agree that:

1. This Non-Disclosure Agreement shall survive the completion of the project (if any) between the NYPD and the Contractor to provide the services or goods identified/described above (hereinafter referred to as "the Contract").
2. This Non-Disclosure Agreement shall apply even if the Contractor, or its subcontractors defaults or if the Contract is otherwise terminated or is not awarded this Contract.
3. This Non-Disclosure Agreement shall apply even if I leave the employment of the Contractor, or its subcontractors or suppliers.
4. I will not at any time disclose, permit the disclosure of, release, disseminate, or transfer confidential information to any person unless: i) an authorized representative of the NYPD has given express written consent; or ii) the person has signed an NYPD Non-Disclosure Agreement, and is or may be directly involved in the work performed. The term "person" will be interpreted broadly to include, without limitation, any corporation, company, partnership or individual.
5. I understand that the NYPD will pursue, to the full and permissible extent of the law, criminal prosecution and/or civil action for failure to comply with the terms of this Non-Disclosure Agreement.
