 RAMON PEREZ RAMON PEREZ	 RAMON PEREZ CONVICTED OF BEATING AND RAPING A 12 YEAR OLD GIRL.	Appellant Ramon Perez was convicted in a jury trial of three counts of rape, one count of aggravated assault on a family or household member, and one count of second-degree sexual assault.¹ The alleged victim was Mr. Perez's girlfriend's twelve-year-old daughter, C.S. For these crimes, Mr. Perez was sentenced to twenty-five years in prison.² Mr. Perez now appeals, arguing that the trial court abused its discretion in admitting hearsay evidence and in failing to follow Arkansas Rule of Evidence 613(b). In particular, <small>-Ramon Perez v. State Of Arkansas, 2016 Ark. App. 54, 1/27/16</small> SENTENCED TO 25 YEARS.
