[Announcer]: Ralph Armstrong was a convicted rapist out on parole when convicted of raping, beating and strangling a 19-year-old Madison coed to death. There was eye-witness testimony, fingerprints at the crime scene and blood under Armstrong's fingernails. But Louis Butler wrote the decision to overturn this rapist conviction. On cases taken up in the Supreme Court, Butler sides with criminals nearly 60 percent of the time.

Tell Louis Butler victims, not criminals, deserve justice.
