[Jim Kitchens plays the piano.] [Jim Kitchens]: "My mother taught me to love music."

[Announcer]: Jim Kitchens was raised in Crystal Springs, Mississippi, learning hard work, faith, family and how to shoot straight.

Jim married his sweetheart, Mary. And then Jim Kitchens became a prosecutor.

He put hundreds of dangerous criminals behind bars. He was even shot down by one in his own driveway.

But Jim Kitchens faced worse moments. [Jim Kitchens]: "Dan was three when he was diagnosed with cancer.

We prayed without ceasing." [Announcer]: Today Jim Kitchens and his sons practice law.

And the whole family is involved with Camp Rainbow for children with cancer. [Mary Kitchens]: "Our lives have been truly blessed."

[Announcer]: Jim Kitchens is now our candidate for Supreme Court. Jim has the honesty and integrity we need.

And Jim Kitchens is everything a Supreme Court justice should be. [PFB]: THE COMMITTEE TO ELECT JIM KITCHENS
