[Woman]: "That Jess Dickinson, he's gone and done it again. He got fined for breaking a rule incumbent for lawyers. I didn't even know there was any rules for lawyers so that didn't bother me.

But Jess Dickinson comes back and tells the newspapers that he had not been fined. Now we know he was and the decision against him is still in the law books. It makes me wonder, is Jess Dickinson really who he says he is?
