[Dickinson]: "They attacked my faith, and said I sued the church. The truth is..."

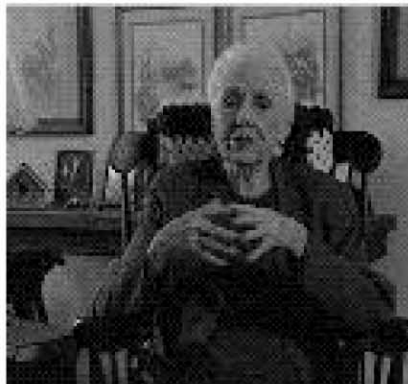

[Woman]: "All this fuss about Jess Dickinson suing a church. I declare, I've never seen such.

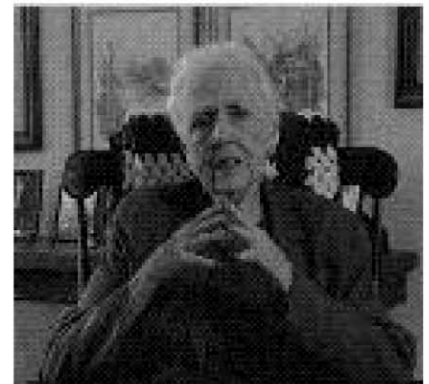

He sued a church. I can forgive him for that. After all, he's just another lawyer.

But then Jess Dickinson came out and said that he had never sued a church in his life, and that really bothers me. Jess, honey, just because you got caught not telling it like it is, you don't have to get so nasty and start calling other people names."
