[Announcer]: For most people the Constitution is nothing more than worthless words and an old, dead document. But to a district judge named Don Chairez, it's about the faith we have in our families and freedom.

When the city of Los Vegas and some downtown casinos took the land of a widow named Carol Papus, Judge Don Chairez stood up and stopped them, because a widow's faith in the Constitution is more important than a casino's contributions. In the fight for freedom, one person can stand up and do what is right. Don

Chairez for Supreme Court. [PFB]: NA/Candidate
