[Announcer]: Justice Lyn Stuart. [Stuart]: "I was born and raised in Atmore, Alabama.

And my daddy was a probation officer there for over twenty years. He taught me a real respect for the laws of our country and showed me the good that comes from our justice system. Judges must be balanced and fair. Courts should interpret the law, not create it. And we must serve and protect victims of crime. It's a lesson I learned in Atmore a long time ago." [Announcer]: Justice Lyn Stuart.
