For young victims of sexual predators

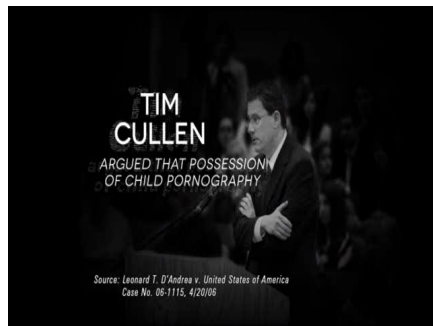

the damage lasts a lifetime.

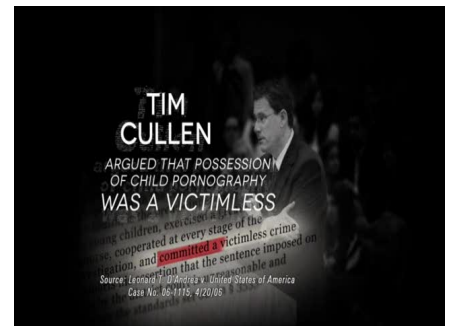

Tim Cullen worked to throw out

the sentence of a repeat sexual predator

Arguing that child pornography

was a victimless crime,

Victimless?

Tell that to the thousands of victims

robbed of their childhood

and physical scars.

Thankfully, the court rejected Tim Cullen's argument.

Call Tim Cullen.

Tell him to stop claiming these are victimless crimes.

Predators belong behind bars.
