ORDER SCHEDULING ORAL ARGUMENT

The Court has determined that the above-captioned case warrants oral argument. The argument will be conducted in the Courtroom of the Indiana Supreme Court, 317 Statehouse, 200 West Washington Street, Indianapolis, Indiana. The argument will be forty (40) minutes in length, equally divided between appellant(s) and the appellee(s). If there are multiple appellants or appellees, the parties shall divide the time among themselves as they deem appropriate. Any entity granted amicus curiae status may argue without further motion, but only with the consent of the party or parties with whom the amicus is substantively aligned. Additional time will not be added for multiple parties or for the participation of amici. Attorneys who plan to sit at counsel's table should arrive at least fifteen (15) minutes before the scheduled start of the argument. The argument will take place at the following date and time:

April 21, 2011 at 10:30 a.m.

If this is a direct appeal, a certified question from the United States Supreme Court or a United States Circuit Court, or a case granted transfer under Appellate Rule 56 or 57, the appellant shall argue first. If the petition to transfer jurisdiction is pending, the petitioner on transfer shall argue first. If this is a case in which a party is seeking review from an opinion of the Tax Court pursuant to Appellate Rule 63, the party seeking review of the Tax Court's decision shall argue first. If this is a certified question from a United States District Court, the plaintiff shall argue first. The party or parties arguing first will be allowed to reserve part of their allotted time for final rebuttal following opposing counsel's argument.

Attorneys of record and self-represented parties are obligated to file an acknowledgement of the oral argument setting no later than fifteen (15) days after service of this order. See App. R. 52(C).
