WHO DRAWS THE DISTRICTS?
STATE LEGISLATURE

HOW ARE DISTRICTS DRAWN?

Process
- State Legislature draws the lines
- State Supreme Court will review the plan if a registered voter petitions

State-Level Criteria
- Contiguity for House and Senate
- Follow political boundaries for House and Senate
- Single-member districts for Senate

Public Hearings
- No redistricting specific provisions

Timing
- Plan must be adopted during the first session after the federal census for the House and Senate
- Plan is effective for 10 years

CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICTS

Process
- State Legislature draws the lines
- Governor can veto the plan
- State Supreme Court has jurisdiction to hear lawsuits concerning congressional districts

State-Level Criteria
- None

Timing
- No deadline